

How do the new Buy to Let tax rules affect your clients and how can you advise them?

From 6th April 2017, loan interest incurred by an individual will not be deductible from rental income for tax purposes. Instead, individuals will get tax relief on liabilities of 20% (basic rate tax).

How does this impact your clients?

Many landlords will find themselves liable for more tax as a result of the changes and may look for alternative options to protect their profit.

This example shows the impact of the changes on an individual with 1 Buy to Let property, PAYE income of £42,385.

Current Rules
Rental income	£7,200
Costs	£1,500
Loan interest	£3,000
Minus total deductions	£4,500
Profit	£2,700
Tax payable @ 40%	£1,080

Remortgage/transfer

- Transfer to a LLC is a chargeable event so will be subject to Capital Gains Tax
- Stamp Duty will be payable
- If gifted or sold under value, it could be considered a Chargeable Lifetime Transfer for Inheritance Tax purposes,
- incurring a liability of 20%

If one partner is taxed at the lower tax rate, consider changing ownership proportions from 50:50 to increase the proportion owned by the lower rate tax payer
