Customers with characteristics of vulnerability

4

The Product is designed for customers purchasing or remortgaging a residential property. We do not consider that this target market represents a higher risk of vulnerability than any other, however as with any target segment the customer base may include some customers with characteristics of vulnerability or who will experience vulnerability over time.

No assumption has been made that any customers in this group will have an enhanced understanding of the mortgage market and we expect all customers to be offered a level of advice and support that ensures they understand the information being presented to them and the implications of the arrangement they are entering into to reduce the risk of harm occurring.

Our mortgage products are assessed as part of the product design process to ensure we do not inadvertently introduce product elements which could disadvantage vulnerable customers and lead to foreseeable harm. Where our intermediary partners identify a customer with vulnerable characteristics, they should notify us as part of the application process.

We have in place a framework to achieve good outcomes for vulnerable customers, which includes:

- Education and training for our staff to ensure they have the appropriate skills and experience to recognise and respond to the needs of vulnerable customers
- Suitable customer service provision and communications
- Flexible policies, where appropriate, to support vulnerable customers
- Monitoring to ensure we continue to meet and respond to the needs of customers with characteristics of vulnerability.

Intermediaries should continue to comply with your obligations to ensure that you treat customers in vulnerable circumstances fairly.

Please contact us if you need any further information about how we support the needs of all our customers in relation to the Product.

Our assessment of value

5

We have developed a comprehensive and robust assessment process for our products which evaluates several aspects of our business to determine price and value. This analysis is used to ascertain whether the Product delivers fair value for customers.

The outcomes of the assessment process are presented to the Board, allowing for challenge and further investigation before we sign-off the outcomes and share the summary of our assessment with you.

Our fair value assessment has considered the following:

Benefits	Price	Costs	Limitations
This product provides funds to enable the purchase or remortgage of a property for owner occupation by way of a first mortgage charge on that property There are a range of features such as the duration of the preferential interest rate and the flexibility of the repayment strategy.	This includes initial rates and reversionary rates, ERC's and origination fee income such as the application fee, completion fees and procurement fees.	The cost associated to a product including; Risk, Funding, Operational and Acquisition costs are taken in to consideration.	Any limitations on the scope and service we provide for example our loans are not portable and we do not offer further advances.

For specific information relating to your customer on rates, fees and charges please check your ESIS Document and our Tariff of Mortgage Fees www.foundationforintermediaries.co.uk/documents/

Results of our assessment

Our assessment concluded that the Product continues to deliver fair value for customers in the target market for the Product upon completion.
